celebrating every individual

17 June 2019

Dear Parent or Carer,

I hope you and your daughter/son has coped well with their exams so far and they are looking forward to their induction into the Sixth Form on Tuesday 2 July and Wednesday 3 July.

An enjoyable part of this Induction will be the trip to Cambridge University on the 2 July where we will visit Kings College and Kings College Chapel for a guided tour with a short period of free time for the student. This will be followed by a tour of Queens College. Packed lunches will be provided, and we will travel by coach which will leave school promptly at 8:30am. I would anticipate that (traffic permitting) we will return to school by 4:00pm.

The cost of the trip will be £30 and a consent form will be forwarded next week along with information as to the sixth form dress code for the sixth form in September.

The 3 July will consist of introductory lessons to prepare for next year, and students will receive work and reading in readiness for their commencement into Sixth Form. This day will start at 8.20am (meeting in the Sixth Form Common Room) and will end at 4pm. Could students please bring pens, etc for the day.

I would request that students dress smartly for both of these days please in business type attire.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully,

David Leddington
Head of Sixth Form
